Forbidden Love between us. I am the werewolf and she is the vampire.~ONE SHOT STORY!~

Hey!Plz Vote Comment And add me as a Fan!This is my first one shot and I hope u like it!

I sighed as I looked at the ocean.It's been a year since I last saw her.Heard her laugh, saw her smile, heard her chiming voice.I was different now.We could never be together.She was a vampire and I was a werewolf.I remembered when we met.We were at a party and I was human then.When I was walking to my car a werewolf jumped me and took me to the forest.I was lost for 5 days, 5 days suffering in pain.When I woke up I was different.I no longer needed my contacts everything was clear.I was faster than I ever was.I was stronger, newer,...better.I remembered Kyle's words.

FLASHBACK

"You are a werewolf so are we.We are here because of vampires."He took out a picture of a vampire.A female vampire.It was her.I saw her flowing black hair her black eyes, her pale skin.She was laughing in the picture and you can see her fangs. I knew the second I saw that picture it was her, Kaili.I looked at the picture with hatred and disgust.It didn't feel like my own feelings.It felt like someone else, I look at vampires with hatred for making me who I am.They are the reason for me not being a human anymore."She's so-"I started, but Kyle cut me off,"They use their beauty to trap you so they can kill you.They play with your mind making it seem like they are trying to help you and make you turn against us."I could kill every vampire I met but not Kaili.

END OF FLASHBACK

I sighed as I stood us feeling the sand under my feet.The sun was setting making a nice view.I turned and ran into the forest trying to forget about her.I was a mile away from my house when I saw a flash and caught the scent of a vampire.They are slightly faster than us but are pretty well matched in a battle.I followed it still in my human form.When I was closer I saw it had long flowing black hair.It was a female vampire, I remembered what Kyle said and told myself repeatedly not to fall for what she had for me.She stopped and was still as I came forward getting closer to her.She seemed so familiar and yet so different at the same time.She whispered oh so softly I could barely make out the words."...No!"She turned around and looked at me.It was her, Kaili. My eyes widen in shock.She was different, I saw every angle of her, saw her blood red lips, which meant she fed earlier, saw her black eyes with red at the corners of her eyes. I realized that I had my breath held for a minute or 2 and breathed in a big gulp of air.It was too sweet air that made my nose wrinkle. She just stood there still as a statue and look at me."Sean."she said in her chiming voice and sounded better in my new ears.'She's the enemy!She's the enemy!'I chanted in my head.She took a step closer and I took a step back."I will never hurt you not even if you are a werewolf."she said taking another step closer to me. Reflexively I took a step backward almost falling, but Kaili grabbed my arm. It sent a jolt of electricity up my arm and she slid her hold from my wrist to my hand."I will NEVER hurt you Sean. I love you too much to do that. I have been searching for you all over the town.When I heard you got kidnapped I thought someone like me had kidnapped you and-"I jerked my hand away from her and taking a few steps back. Her arm dropped and hung by her side. Sadness filled her deep eyes She looked as if she were about to cry. She just kept staring at me and looked down."And I thought I would never see you again. I thought you were going to be turned a vampire but instead you turned into a werewolf." she said in a normal tone but I could hear a bit of pain in her voice that made me question. 'Is she really thinking that?Or is she trying to get me to go to her so she could kill me?'"Sean."said Kaili taking a step closer,"Take my hand,"and she raised her hand slowly up her eyes never leaving mine. I hesitantly followed and when our hand touch I felt the jolt of electricity flow through my arm, but it felt good to hold her hand.Suddenly I wanted a hug or kiss from her. She closed her eyes slowly and when she did I saw flashes of the future.I saw a wolf and Kaili, she hissed at it and pounced. He was dead in 3 minutes.She sucked all the blood from it and her eyes were all red.That imaged flashed by and I saw a ring being slid into her ring finger and saw her radiant smile.That flashed by as well, Then I saw her and the groom, she turned to him and said her vowels and when he turned I gasped.It was me.I was saying vowels and placed the wedding ring on her ring finger and we kissed.Then it went blank as I fell to the ground."SEAN!"shouted a frantic Kaili.I opened my eyes and saw Kyle in wolf form cornering Kaili in the front while Duke was approaching her from behind. I couldn't let them take her, they couldn't take her!!!!!!! I changed into my wolf form and growled at them.They didn't back off from her but took a step closer.It was a sacrifice I had to make.Saved a vampire who made me this way or tun on my pack who helped me through when I had changed. I rammed into Duke and growled at Kyle.Duke was in human form unconscious, since he recently joined us he is still weak. I growled and blared my teeth at Kyle who just looked really pissed off and snarled at me. I saw Kaili pounce at Kyle and did not stop her.He was dead as she sucked the blood from him.It was what I had saw earlier so that means that I will be marrying Kaili.But did I love her that much?Yes, yes I did.I protected her from my pack and did nothing as she killed my leader. I changed back to human form and she just stared at me."You shouldn't have done that,"she said after a period of silence,"You shouldn't have save me from them, you should've let me die-"I cut her off my kissing her fiercely and she responded.It felt so good and so right.I let me arms wrap around her waist as she lifted her arms and wrapped them around my neck.I pushed away too fast and too soon. I backed away a few feet from her fled. I just kept running and running till I reached the spot I was there earlier. I looked up at the sky and saw the full moon and saw the reflection on the oceans making it look beautiful. I only wished Kaili was here with me.'You don't like her!She made you who you are right now!She's the reason you're a werewolf!' my mind said.'It's not her fault, she probably didn't know what happened to her anymore than I did.' I said in my head. I closed my eyes and thought of nothing. I tried to think of nothing. I needed a clear head. I bit my lip and tasted something sweet.Too sweet. I felt as if the kiss on my lips still. I shook my head trying to erase the memory. I felt a breeze and opened my eyes.

Kaili was in front of me and her eyes were full of sadness. I wanted so much to comfort her but I knew I couldn't. She bit her bottom lip and all I could do was stare at her. She was the one I wanted to be with but couldn't."Sean...,"said Kaili,"We need to talk about this." I look away from her face but she only placed her hand on my cheek and made me look at her. My face started to tingle every time she touched me. "I know you feel it Sean."said Kaili,"You feel a tingling feeling every time we touch,"she took a step closer inches away from my face,"Every time we kiss."and I couldn't help myself I leaned in to close the space between us and kissed her.She kissed me back after a few seconds, it felt good to be holding her and kissing her. The electricity between us felt like it was cranked up a notch . And it felt great. We could've gone on for hours but I needed air, she didnt.She had her eyes close as I caught my breath. She looked so sweet and innocent. I placed my hand on her cheek and felt a tingling sensation flow through me again. She opened her eyes slowly and we just stood there gazing at each other's eyes."Kaili, will everything happen? Will everything you showed me happen?"I asked breaking our silence."Yes."she said looking me in the eyes."So can you tell me when I give you the ring?" I asked her smiled. She laughed, oh how good it felt to her it. This went on for days. Catching up, cuddling, kissing, what couples do. When I was walking past a shop I noticed a ring. It was exactly like it in the vison Kaili showed me. I walked in and bought it, thinking when I should propose to her. No, the question was IF I was ready for marriage.Of course I was ready! I love her! Right? I walked home thinking if it was right and if I really was in love.Kaili greeted me with a long kiss. We sat down on the couch and cuddled. I was growing used to her cold skin."Kaili, what do you love about me?"I asked her feeling a bit nervous for her answer."I love you because of you dazzling smile, your cute nice black hair. Your very smart and bright, and when I'm with you it just feels right." she answered looking at me. I smiled,"What I love about you is your beautiful flowing black hair, your deep black eyes, your dazzling smile and when I am with you it feels like I have my other half."I said and leaned down to kiss her, but she pushed away. I pouted, "whats wrong?"I asked."Dont you have something to say?"she asked raising one of her perfect eyebrow.I smiled,"Yes I do." I stood up taking her along with me and we sped down towards the beach. She was wearing a pretty white sundress with a brown belt. I got down on one knee and brought the little box out,"Kaili, I love you and will always love you. I want to be with you till the day I die.Will you marry me?"I said and showed her the ring. She smiled so big and screamed a loud,"YES!!!!!" I smiled up at her slid the ring on her ring finger and brought her into a hug and was spinning her around while kissing her. We were busy for the past 2 months getting ready for our wedding. We invited everyone that were our family. And she did not invite any vampires besides her best friend who will hunt 2 hours before it. Finally the big day rolled up and I was nervous. I know the bride was probably freaking out saying 'this is a mistake!' but Kaili seemed calm. For now. I stood at the end and watched her walk down towards me. She looked so beautiful in her dress I smiled at her and saw her smile back at me. We said our vows and I heard everyone cheer when I was giving her a kiss.

And we lived Happily Ever After.

"Come on Faye! Let's go!"said my boyfriend, Travis. I smiled and myself in the mirror, I was wearing a tan top short sleeved, with a skirt with black tights with my black shoes. I opened my window as quietly as I could. Squeak! My head instantly turned to the door, I waited 30 seconds before opening it all the way up. It was 6 in the morning and yes I was sneaking out. I climbed down from the tree and slid down into my boyfriend's arms. I pecked him before we broke out in a run to our place. There was already a blanket spread out and we plopped down. I naturally laid my head back on his chest crossing my hands to hold his while he hugged me tight.. We laid there against our tree, which has our initials written inside a heart directly above his head, and watched the sunrise. The warm hues filled me with warmth and being close to Travis made my heart sing! The sun was a warm vibrant orange, and pink, purple, yellow, and red surrounds the sun as it rises up slowly. I think during the process we ended up sleeping because when I woke up the sun was a bright yellow, the sky was blue with clouds floating about. I got up and found Travis beside me breathing softly. I smiled and took off his hat and ran my fingers through his soft black hair. His face was just so darn cute and I couldn't help myself so I leaned down and kissed his soft cheek. He stirred beneath me and opened his eyes slowly."Hey,"he said his eyes still droopy. I chuckled soft,"Hey sleepyhead."I said, he looked around and sat up."What time is it?"he said running his hand through his beautiful hair."Umm..."I opened my phone and found that it was 10."10."I answered him."Oh, well I was hoping for a romantic morning with my beautiful girl, but this'll do."he smiled my favorite smile. I smiled back."I'll be happy anywhere if I'm with you."I whispered blushing slightly. "I want to show you something."he said and got up and ran behind a tree. He came back after a short minute with his guitar. And sat criss-cross in front of my laying down position. He strummed the first notes to, I belong To You by Superchick my favorite band. I smiled as he sing.

Everybody needs to belong somewhere life can feels so alone without someone who cares.

And when life becomes something just to get through,

that's when I'm glad that I belong to you.

I belong to you,I belong to you,

you're the one who will never let me down,

won't let me down.

I belong to you.

Girl I belong to you.

Sometimes life brings more pain than we can bear alone.

When hope is gone and I have no strength to stand on my own, when nothing helps, there's nothing that I can do, you surround me and show me I belong to you.

I belong to you,I belong to you,

you're the one who will never let me down,

won't let me down.

I belong to you.

Girl I belong to you.

When Love is gone there's no arms to run to anymore,

I'm all alone there's no one for me to live for, letting go of the things I've always clung to,

that's when I need to feel that I belong to you.

I belong to you,I belong to you,

you're the one who will never let me down,

won't let me down.

I belong to you.

Girl I belong to you.

A smile felt as if it were stuck as he sang the whole song to me. I loved how he changed 'Lord' to 'Girl'.When he was done and put the guitar down I practically jumped him. I kissed with love, passion and everything I've felt with him. He's just...perfect."I love you Travis Lee."I blurted out after our kiss.

He smiled down at me and our foreheads touches, nose to nose, eye to eyes."I love you too Faye Dalton."he said before his lips met mine again. I finally said it!, I though, I finally told him I loved him! For 2 years we've been dating and now I am finally sure that this is the guy I want to spend my life with.

This is the guy I want, the guy I will ever want and need. We broke apart and Travis helped me stand.

He knelt down and my eyes widened."Travis."I whispered. He looked into my eyes as I stared into his blue eyes."Faye Grace Dalton, I love you and I always want to be with you. When you're sad, I'm sad.

When you're happy, I'm happy. When you smile on a rainy day it seems as if the sun came out. I love you and I want to be with you forever."said Travis, he reached into his jeans and took out a small black velvet box."Will you marry me?"he asked opening the box. Inside was a ring with a ruby on the left, a diamond in the middle, and an emerald on the right. The ruby was his birth month and the emerald was mine. "YES!!!"I screamed and he rose up smiling as he slid the ring onto my left hand and holding it as he kissed me. He twirled me around and I clutched his hand with my left, and grabbed his shirt with my right.

WEDDING:

I was hyperventilating, this was the big day!!!! I breathed in and out of my mouth trying to slow my breathing but nothing worked. The guests were seated in fold out chairs along the beach and outside was were Travis and his best man were at. My best friend Kirsten was trying to help me calm down and fix my veil. She opened the door for me as we hear Here Come The Bride starting. I walked slowly out wearing no shoes(duh it's the beach!) but I was wearing a pearl barefoot sandal. My dad was there and I held his arm .I was already half way there 3 strides away from my baby cousin who was the flower girl tossing little pink petals. When I finally got up I handed my bouquet to Kirsten and my dad gave held my hand and gave it to Travis. He nodded his head and we faced the priest. Finally after repeating what the priest said it was time for the I do's."Do you Travis Jacob Lee, take thee Faye Grace Dalton to be your loving wedded wife to...?"he went on. Travis looked into my eyes,"I do."he said taking my hand sliding the ring in. Tears of joy welled up in my eyes and I blinked a couple of times."And do you Faye Grace Dalton take thee Travis Jacob Lee to be your loving wedded husband to..."he continued on and I looked into Travis's eyes."I do."I manged to say my voice cracking. My hands shaking as I slid his ring into place."I now pronounce you Mr. and Mrs. Lee! You may now kiss the bride!" and Travis took my face in his hands and kissed me. I kissed back tears streaming down my cheeks. We pulled away and smiled.

The guest were cheering, and they lined up to congratulate us. Soon I was throwing the bouquet and landed in Kirsten's arms squealing happily. Then I was sitting down as Travis was removing my garter. I was scarlet as he did so and threw it to his best man. Time seemed to go forward and soon Travis and I were giving each other cake. The day seemed perfect and before I knew it, it was time for our honeymoon!

Chapter 3

I'm mute by choice...until you came along

This is a one shot story I just made up a few minutes ago, and I really like it! ^^ Lol Hope all ya'll will 2! :)

For years since school I never talked to anyone, I have no friends, not even one. I didn't want to know anyone. I have never spoken a word to any teachers no one knows what my voice sounds like. I only talked to my family. At school I pretended to be mute and only did sign language and wrote the answer. My teachers never cared, I never wanted to communicate with anyone. I just wanted to be a shadow. Being in the background. I never liked talking, theres not much to talk about. Today I was doodling on my notebook when in walked in the popular crowd laughing, probably at nothing funny. They walked over right behind me talking up the middle of the room. I noticed there was someone new with them. He was Asian, like me his hair was dark brown while mine was pure black. He had a slight tan, I think he might be mixed-American and Asian. He looks Korean to me. I was mixed Asian my mom is from China while my dad is from South Korea. The girls were swooning all over him while I saw nothing special in him. I turned around to get something just when he looked at me. I pretended I didn't noticed and just got my stuff and turned around. Not quickly that would be too obvious, just like a normal person. I continued to doodle even though I felt a small tap. The person tapped me harder. I turned around in my seat and found out that it was the new guy.

"Hey,"he smiled, there was a slight barely noticeable hint of Korean accent in his voice. I gave him a smile and turned around in my seat.

"Don't worry about her Lee, she's mute she can't talk."said Marie, the bitch in every school.

"What's her name?"he asked.

"Why do you want to know?"said Marie.

"Just wondering thats all. I want to get to know people for this half year I have here."he said. I could tell Marie was rolling her eyes as she said my name.

"Her name is Kim, Yoobin. Yoobin is her first name." I stayed turned around just aimlessly drawing a sketch of my little sister that I have been working on for two days already.

"Hey Yoobin,"said Lee. I turned around with a confused expression. Some people tried to be my friend but have given up. "I'm Lee Jae Jin, it's nice to meet you." I gave him sign language for same thing and smiled and turned around.

"Don't worry about trying. She doesn't have any friends, just a stupid mute."laughed Marie. I didn't feel angry, I had controlled my anger long ago. Losing your temper can cause you to say things, and I for one don't have anything to say. The teacher came in and everyone settled down. The teacher told Lee to tell the class something about him.

"Well, my mom is Korean, and my dad is American. I was born in America then when I was ten I moved to Korea with my family, then we moved back 2 years ago." The girls were all swooned, I still felt and saw nothing special about him.

"What are your hobbies?"asked Marie.

"I sing, and play guitar and piano." I looked around the room and some of the girls were already about to die to be with him. Pathetic. I wrote on my paper in Korean(something my dad had taught me since I was five) and gave it to him. He had a confused expression but when he finished reading it he laughed. Some of the girls rushed up to him to see what I had wrote. Haha, too bad they didn't know what I wrote.

Are you Lee Jae Jin the Singer/Rapper/Dancer who is screwed and messed up?

He smiled brightly at me. "No,"he said in Korean. I smiled back playfully while the rest had a confused expression on their faces.

"Alright class settle down, settle down. Take your seats!"Lee gave me another smile before returning to his seat. Hmm, he's not so bad. As I stood up at the end of class and the teacher left for a brief moment Marie shoved me down on the floor, glaring at me. I turned my body facing her.

"Leave Lee alone. Or else."she said. Lee was already out the door, not knowing what had happened. But there were others in the room and gossip travels fast like at other schools. I got up and shrugged. I quickly wrote her a note saying that I don't care about him, that she can have him. She seemed pleased with it and left me alone. I got my stuff and walked to my other classes.

My days went on normally, students ignoring me, me ignoring them. I didn't have anymore encounters with Lee and I am glad. Only grabbing an apple I walked outside and sat under the tree and red 'The True About Forever' by Sarah Dessen. I was so engrossed with the book I hadn't noticed someone had sat down beside me;clearing his throat. Looking up from my book towards whoever I found that it was Lee. I gave him a small quick smile throwing my apple away making a perfect shot. "Nice,"he commented. I nodded my head and gave him a questioning look. "Did you really write this?"he asked, handing me a sheet of paper. It was the note I had written for Marie. I blushed and nodded, standing up. I waved him goodbye just as the bell rang. I left go a sigh of relief and walked to my class, feeling the gaze of Lee on my back. I reached Biology and sat on the lab desk alone.

"Hi, Mr.Mercades? I'm Lee Jae Jin. I'm new here."looking away from the open windows my eyes meeting his. I blinked and adverted my eyes as if he was just a passing object. "Ah, yes. Please take a seat next to Yoobin and we shall begin." Lee smiled at me and sat down, I smiled at him and class begun. We were the first one done with the lab; finding the stages of mitosis and which one occurred the most."So..."trailed Lee, trying to make conversation. I looked at him my left palm pressed against my cheek. Raising an eyebrow telling him to continue. "Where are you from." Taking a piece of loose left I told him about where my parents are from and that I was born here. Lee nodded and smile. "No wonder you knew Korean. At least now I don't feel out of place."I almost laughed but I held it in smiling. The bell rang and I walked to my class. I didn't have Lee for any other classes and for some strange reason I felt...sad? I don't know this was something I had never experienced, this, this feeling!

Walking to the music room thirty minutes after everyone else had left, I had to be alone to do this, I started to play the piano and sing. Every time I come here, I feel as if I belong. I start playing Defying Gravity from Wicked, I LOVE the musical!

"Something has changed within me

Something is not the same

I'm through with playing by the rules

Of someone else's game

Too late for second-guessing

Too late to go back to sleep

It's time to trust my instincts

Close my eyes: and leap!

It's time to try

Defying gravity

I think I'll try

Defying gravity

And you can't pull me down!

I'm through accepting limits

"cause someone says they're so

Some things I cannot change

But till I try, I'll never know!

Too long I've been afraid of Losing love I guess I've lost

Well, if that's love

It comes at much too high a cost!

I'd sooner buy

Defying gravity

Kiss me goodbye

I'm defying gravity

And you can't pull me down.

Unlimited

Together we're unlimited

Together we'll be the greatest team

There's ever been

There's no fight we cannot win

Just you and I

Defying gravity

With you and I

Defying gravity

They'll never bring us down!

I really hope you get it

And you don't live to regret it

I hope you're happy in the end

I hope you're happy, my friend

So if you care to find me

Look to the western sky!

As someone told me lately:

"Ev'ryone deserves the chance to fly!

And if I'm flying solo

At least I'm flying free

To those who'd ground me

Take a message back from me

Tell them how I am

Defying gravity

I'm flying high

Defying gravity

And soon I'll match them in renown

And nobody in all of Oz

No Wizard that there is or was

Is ever gonna bring me down! "

I was singing so high, and so loud, it felt great. I smiled and sat down. Somehow I always end up standing while playing a big song like this. I was breathing hard from that high note, but it felt great to sing like that. I was just about to take a sip from my water bottle when a voice made me jump. "So you were faking it." slowly turning around I've come face to face with Lee Jae Jin.

"W-why are you h-here?"I asked him.

"I forgot something so I came back to school, then I heard you singing as I came through the backdoor thinking that the custodians lock the front doors. " I rolled my eyes, silly new guy.

"Well they are open until 5. And can you please not tell anyone?"I asked-no BEGGED him. He looked at me curiously.

"Why? What's in it for me?"he smiled playfully.

"Anything you want."I said immediately regretting it.

"Sure, but first tell me why you want to keep your voice a secret? Your voice is so...pretty, nice. I never would've thought someone could have a voice like that." I blushed beet red.

"I don't like talking to...people. And what do you want." I said crossing my arms.

"Ok, I have two things one-will you please go out with me?"said Lee biting his lower lip. I froze. I was expecting something as simple as a kiss, but a date? I blushed at the thought of what could happen.

"I-I-"I stuttered blushing MORE.

"Y-you don't h-have t-to say yes! You can-"

"Yes,"I said cutting him off, laughing at his blubbering. He smiled brightly at me. "What's the second condition?"

"You'll have to wait for that one,"he said winking. "So are you done here? I noticed that I was the only car parked here in the student section, you need a ride?"

"Sure, why not. I was going to walk but whatever."I said grabbing my stuff and closing the door behind me.

"So where do you live?" I gave him my address and it appears that he lives two houses down from me.

The car ride was pretty awkward, duh to a girl who doesn't and hasn't talked to anyone in her life besides her family."So how's your first day?"I asked him awkwardly trying to break the silence.

"Good, I meet this really extraordinary girl, that happens is the one that is talking to me." he said, I blushed feeling that fainting feel, and feeling extremely hot.

"Oh," I mentally slapped myself. 'Oh'? Was that the best thing I could come up with saying after what he had said?! Oh?!

"So...how was your day?"he asked, after a minute of silence.

"Good, I meet this new guy who won't leave me alone."I said teasingly.

"Hey! I'm the new guy you're dating."he countered playfully. I rolled my eyes and we reached my house.

"I- um.. t-thanks for bring-"I was cut off by the sudden feel of his lips crashing down on my own. My eyes were still open so I closed them leaning on his to kiss him better. I pulled back blushing, and smiling. I opened the door and leaned in through the opening window. "Thanks again, for everything today."I winked at him and he smiled.

"Anytime."he said.

"I guess I should go..."I trailed off but making no attempt of moving from where I was.

"Yeah...I should go to,"he said but didn't move away, just kept looking at me. I didn't know who started to lean in first but soon our lips made contact for the second time today. I felt more sparks and electricity in this kiss than the last. This kiss felt lie it went on forever, but in a good way. We finally pulled away, both breathing pretty heavily. I blushed beet red, why am I blushing so much today?!, and looked down. Lee used his finger to bring my chin up to look at him, he was smiling.

"I like it when you blush, it makes you look extra pretty." his words made me blush MORE, if that were possible.

"T-thank y-you."I stuttered.

"KIM YOOBIN!!!!! GET IN HERE THIS INSTANT!!!!!"Yelled my mom.

"Uh oh,"I whispered. COMING!"I yelled back. Oh crap! She must've seen me kissing Lee. "I got to go, but thanks again for the ride!"I said walking up the steps.

"No problem!"he yelled. I turned back and waved at him then walked into my house.

~~~The Next Day~~~

It turns out my mom didn't see what had happened, just wanted me to babysit my sister while she goes to the store. I was walking towards school when a car pulled up next to me. I tried to look through the tinted windows to see who it was, but it was impossible. That's why they're tinted! Whoever it was rolled down the window to reveal Lee! I smiled when I saw him, "Hey Lee!"I greeted him.

"Hey, you want a ride?"he asked. I smiled and got in.

"Oh, just a warning I'm not going to be able to talk to you, only write notes."I said looking out the window.

"Yeah, I kinda knew you would. I still don't understand why you won't talk to people."he said parking the car. I shrugged my shoulders, and opened the door. Students froze when they saw us together. Marie screeched at the sight. Marie stormed over and shoved me down. I silently gasped and looked at her with fear.

"I told you to stay away from him, now you will have to suffer the consequences. " Marie lifted a stiletto foot and I waited for the impact.

"Stop it Marie."growled Lee.

"Why should I ? Did you read the note? She doesn't care about you."Marie sneered.

"If she didn't care about me then why are we dating?"he countered. Everyone was shocked, and everyone froze.

"WHAT?!"she screeched. Lee helped me up and held my hand.

"I'd appreciate if you leave me and my girlfriend alone." G-girlfriend?!?! I felt shocked and extremely happy that Lee called me his girlfriend. In first period Lee sat next to me, word has already gone around on what happened and the class grew quiet as we walked in. I started to write in Korean and handed him the note.

'Thank You'

"No problem,"he said in Korean, and I smiled. No one could know what we were writing or what we were saying. Soon the classroom filled up with the populars ignore us, besides Marie. When she saw us she glared at me. I bit my lip and Lee turned and saw what was wrong. Marie looked away and I looked down.

"It's okay, don't let her effect you."he said in Korean. (Ok for the next time they talk to each other it's going to be in Korean.)

I gave him a small smile and nodded. Class started and that broke away our conversation.

For the next four months Lee and I were happy, I still didn't talk to anyone, only him when we were alone.

"Remember to sigh up for the School Spring Talent Show! Deadline is in a week!"said Courtney Anders, a really nice girl. Lee and I were walking to his car when he announcement came on. I climbed into his car and so did he. Lee reversed and started to drive.

"Hey do you remember that very first day when I found you singing?"asked Lee.

"Yeah, of course I remember."I was confused what was he getting at?

"And remember I have one more condition?" Oh yeah, I almost forgot. He had two to keep my secret.

"Yeah..."I said slowly.

"My second condition is for you to enter the talent show." I froze, literally. I sat there unmoving, holding my breath, and not blinking my eyes. "Yoobin? You alright?"asked Lee pulling up into my driveway. "Yoobin."said Lee shaking me. I blinked.

"No,"I said."I won't do it."

"Aww, come on! Pleaseeeee,"he said giving me his puppy face.

"I- er- grrr!! I hate you!!! Fine I'll do it."I reluctantly agreed. "But you have to do it with me."

Lee looked perfectly fine with that. Crap, I was hoping he'd say no.

"Ok, what song should we sing?"he asked. I bit my lip thinking.

"Here, come in and we'll try to find something."I said getting out. I heard his door close and locking his car. When we got in I went straight for the piano, opening the seat taking out three folders containing all the music I have learned and memorized. "Here these two folders are duets,"I said handing him a red and green folder putting the blue one away. I was playing a song-Moonrise by Brain Crain- when Lee laughed, I continued to play as I asked why he was laughing.

"Upu have High School Musical?"he chuckled.

I shrugged,"I still like it, theres nothing wrong with it."

"Okay then, how about Everyday?"he asked giving me the sheets. I spread the sheets across just in case I play the wrong notes.

"Once in a life time. Means theres no second chance...."Lee's voice sounded amazing, I never knew he could sing like that. We continued on the song and I had to admit we sounded great together.

~~~*~

"I am making the biggest mistake ever!"I hissed at Lee as we were back stage. Everyone thought that I was only going to play the piano while Lee sings. But they are oh so wrong.

"Don't worry, you'll be fine."he said gently giving my a small kiss.

"And next up is Yoobin Kim, and Lee Jae Jin!"said Courtney. I gulped and we walked onto the stage. Marie and Mandy bumped into me, as the strutted off the stage. "Ignore them."said Lee. I nodded and sat on the piano while Lee was standing next to me. I began the opening chords and some people giggled at the song choice.

Everyone's eyes widened as I sang all my lines, some even said 'No freakin' way!!!' others just gasped. At the end I was blushing madly, and took Lee's hand and bowed. Everyone cheered and I gave them all a smile. "Thank You for watching and listening to us."I said sweetly, and we walked off.When I got backstage all the other contestants hugged me and told me I did a great job and so did Lee. They were all surprised that I could actually talk. I said 'Thank You' to all of them.

"You know, I think you planned this. Now I can't pretend to not being able to talk."I accused. Lee laughed,

"Yeah, that's what I was trying to do,"he winked.

"Now let's welcome all contestants onto the stage."said Courtney. We all got in a line, and I felt myself blush slightly from having everyone watching me, especially sense they all found out that I was faking it. "Alright, now remember even though you didn't win, at least you tried your best! We will have three winners and third place is Matt for his Magic Trick act." The principal gave Matt a small broze throphy"Second is..."trailed Courtney opening a letter, "is Marie and Mandy for there Fashion show display." The principal handed them a medium silver throphy that they both kissed. "And first place goes to..." Courtney opened another letter and gasped smiling brightly. "Yoobin and Lee!!! Congratulations to you two!"she said handing us a big gold throphy. I screamed just a little and hugged Lee. Marie and Mandy were fumming with anger. Lee bent his head and kissed me. All the students were cheering and we pulled back smiling and waving to everyone. This would be a night that I will NEVER forget.

"May I?"asked Lee to Courtney for the mic.

"Sure, here you go."she smiled, winking at him.

"Okay, quiet down everyone."said Lee. Everyone sat down and was quiet. "I have something to ask Yoobin." Me? Lee took my hand and walked to center stage. He got on one knee and my eyes widened.

"Lee,"I whispered.Now everyone knew what h was going to do.

"Yoobin Kim, I love you and want to be with you for the rest of my life. I don't know you very long, but I already know everything about you and love all your flaws. Will you marry me?" Courtney came over and handed him a small black box winking at me. He lifted the box open to reveal a pink diamond ring in the shape of a heart.

"I-I...YES!!"I said feeling overjoyed, as if nothing could bring me down. Lee smiled and slid the ring on my left ring finger.The audience cheered and I heard someone in the first row say, "Gosh, she is so lucky! I wish that happened to me!" Lee picked me up spinning me while kissing me. He finally put me down and I had to hold onto him because I was dizyyy! Courtney took a picture of us and smile.

"Congrats Yoobin." All night I couldn't stop smiling, we told our parents who were so excited for us.

That night Lee and I were taking a walk through the park. "So are you happy that you agreed to be in the talent show?" I smiled at Lee."Of course I am! But I'm more happy that we are going to get married,"I said running a hand through his hair kissing his lips softly, but it still contained that magical tingly feeling. When we pulled back Lee smiled.

"So am I," and he kissed me again, with love, passion and lust. I kissed him back equal to what he was feeling. This is how it should always be.

Chapter 4

I'm mute by choice...until you came along

I AM MAKING THE WORST MISTAKE OF MY LIFE!!!!! I mentally screamed. Maybe it was too early to get married. Maybe I'm not ready! Maybe...maybe.... Oh who am I kiddin' I got nothing!! Sitting here on a red velvety chair while Mia(my cousin) is curling my black hair that just doesn't want to be curled goes back to being straight no matter how much hairspray! I swear my hair is so hard it's like a knife! I was in my wedding gown it was white with sparkles and I was getting warm inside.I had hair combs across the middle of my hair holding the veil in place. Courtney Anders is a really close friend of mine now and was doing my make-up.

"Calm down!"said Courtney trying to apply mascara? Is that what's applied on your eyelashes? I took a deep breath and tried to calm myself. "Meditate if you have to!"said Courtney in a dead serious voice. I rolled my eyes and closed my eyes breathing deeply.

"Ok, yeah meditating ain't working." I said opening my eyes.

"UGH!!!! FINE! Then do this!"she said shoving a notebook in front of me. I opened it to the page she had marked and IT WAS HER FREAKIN' TRIG HOMEWORK.

"COURTNEY!"I said.

"What?! It's extra credit! Plus it won't matter to you sense you are going off to college when I have another year of high school!"she retorted. Rolling my eyes I begun to do it. Ya know what? IT ACTUALLY CALMED ME DOWN. 15 minutes later they gave up on my hair wetting it and blow drying to make it soft again.

"Here, drink this."said my mom giving me cranberry juice?

"Ma, what's this?"I said.

"Cranberry juice."she said simply doing Mariella's hair.

"Why?"

"So it can make your lips the red color. Just drink it by putting your lips inside the cup and then dabbing away the juice with a napkin." I nodded and did as I was instructed to do. 5 minutes later my lips were deep red, but also natural looking.

"Wow,"I whispered. Hmm, who would ever thought....

"Alright! Come on! Here's your bouquet, and Mariella heres your basket filled with pretty flowers! Just throw then around the aisle alright." said Courtney handing Mariella a white basket filled with pink petals, white ones, and light pink. I closed my eyes and took a deep breath, my heart was pounding so much I thought it'll explode! As I heard the organ start my heart soared, a light cold sweat broke out across my forehead. Thank you Courtney for putting waterproof make-up on me. My breathing accelerated and the doors opened and out walked Mariella. Then one by one my three closest friends walked out.(Courtney, Mia, Mary)(Mary is my other cousin.) My mom was already out there in the front row, there was no time to wait, no time to think. My feet just moved towards the door and stepping out of the shadows. Everyone's eyes were looking straight at me. At least there wasn't a spotlight light.(Are those what they are called? A spotlight light? If a spotlight is where someone stands then is a Spotlight light the light they use?? Hmm...) I took my dad's arm as we walked down. I wanted to look down but my head stayed up looking around the place smiling at everyone. Oh PLEASE don't let there be something in my teeth! Then my eyes meet Lee's, and it took everything I had not to break out in a run in these stiletto heels.(Pink) I couldn't look anywhere else besides his deep chocolate brown eyes. Soon we were right in front of him, my face breaking out into a smile as my dad gave Lee my hand.

"I am giving you my daughter to hold and care for. Don't hurt her or I'll her you."he said sternly.

"Ba!"I said, meaning dad. He looked at me smiling sheepishly. I rolled my eyes just a bit. We said our vows and I tears up as he said his.

"From the moment I met you, I was fascinated. They way your hair was so shiny, straight, your beautiful face captivating me. I could've almost swear to anyone that I have met an angel. And now that I've met you and got to know you. You truly are an angel. So delicate, righteous, forgiving, so perfect. If we've met in an alleyway I probably would've thought I'd die and gone to heave!"a laugh escaped my lips before I could even stop it. So did the audience. "And that's why I am glad that you're going to be my wife, I love you, I want to cherish you all my life, I love every one of your small flaws, and I love everything about you..."I cried as he continued. At first it was humorous, but then he got down to the meaning and it filled every cell in my body with joy and happiness. By the time it was to say my vows I could barely say it, but I made it through. I said I loved him with all my heart, that I loved all of his few flaws, that I was glad that he had found out my secret, that I was so happy for him to be my husband, and so much more.

We slid in our rings and kissed. This kiss was like none other before. There was love, happiness, joy, lust x1,000,000,000. It was almost to much to handle, yet everything felt so right. We pulled away and smiled.

Everyone erupted into cheers, they all jumped out of their seats clapping. But I was too busy gazing into his eyes as he was in mine. We finally broke it and smiled at the crowd. Lee wiped away my tears and kissed my forehead. I blushed deep scarlet and everyone laughed. Everything changed as if someone pressed fast forward.

I was sitting on a chair blushing the deepest red on a human being as Le removed my garter tossing it to my brother, who winked at his girlfriend. Lee kissed me which only made me blush MORE red if that were possible. I turned around and threw my bouquet over my head and quickly spun around, laughing as it landed in Mariella's arms. Mariella's eyes widened, and she squealed happily. Lee guided me off the stage and towards the champagne. There were glasses stacked up on top of each other and all we had to do was overfill the top one so it'll fill the rest. We each took a bottle and poured it at the top. The top glass overfilling, filling the other glasses like a fountain. I was lucky that I didn't get any red wine on my dress! After we talked and toasted it was time for the dance. First it was the father daughter dance, and I glided across the floor with my dad. "I can't believe you're so grown up now! I mean you're married! You're not my baby girl anymore! And with college! Are you trying to kill your old man?"said my dad tearing up. I laughed.

"I'll always be your baby girl dad, and don't worry. Lee will take care of me now."I smiled. He nodded and smiled back. Soon the dance floor was filled with other dads and their daughters. We stopped when Lee took me away. I smiled when I saw him, and it's funny. When he got me it turned to a slow song. I leaned my head against his chest feeling his heartbeat, pounding slightly faster than usual. I felt Lee resting his head on the side of my hair, not ruining it.

"It's almost time to go,"said Lee, his heart beating fast. I blushed not daring to look at him.

"I know,"I said. Lee took my chin and lifted my face so he could stare deeply into my eyes. Lowers his head slowly kissing me softly before pulling away.

"It's time to go."he whispered just as Courtney came on the stage announcing so. I swear Courtney will be anywhere as long she is talking through a mic! I blushed as the crowd erupted again through cheers. Lee and I walked towards the limo that was going to take us to the airport, then to a place where my grandma once owned, but belonged to me now. A small island 5,000 miles from Hawaii. She called it Tian Gul; Paradise. Lee kissed me once we were away and whispered in my ear.

"We belong together, no matter what."

Chapter 5

December 9 {One Shot}

ANOTHER ONE SHOT STORY

I walked as quietly as I could through the hard crunchy snow in my uggs. I had on my black trench coat with a white scarf hanging a bit loose. It was December 9, the saddest day of the year to me. I stood at the site of a large oak tree and walked closer. I took off my coat and removed my scarf leaving me in a plain white dress. I put everything in a pile and sat down against the oak. My name is Sarah Winters. Staring out around the endless trees the scenery changed into that horrid day.

"MAX!!!"I yelled, looking everywhere frantically."MAX!!!" I kept shouting his name over and over again, till I saw him. Relief was supposed to wash over me, but it never came because of what I saw. Max-my dear younger brother who was constantly bullied- had a knife laying beside him on the ground, blood oozing from both his wrists. "Max..."I sobbed. With shaking hands I was able to call 9-1-1 and told them to come to Central Park with an ambulance. I hoped that I wasn't too late. Though I hoped, I knew it was too late. Tears escaped my eyes as I leaned my head back. Drops of dried blood was still of the tree. With shaking fingers I traced over the stains. It's been two years since my seven year-old brother was taken from me. Now I had nothing to hold onto. I kept thinking for the past two dreadfully long years that someone would come to rescue me from my misery. But this is life, not a fairytale story with happy endings. I gave up happiness when Max died.

Taking out the small blade I looked at it, memories when I actually WAS happy. Me, Max, and my parents were at the beach, splashing in the waves.

Until they were taken by the waves, swept away from us. I was twelve when they were taken, Max was only five. We had no relatives, my parents were the only child that our grandparents had, but they too died long ago. Then two years later Max couldn't taken it anymore. Only at age seven he committed suicide. I guess suicide and death is what has come of this family.

A gust of wind shot my long black hair backwards, soft snow coming in large puffballs started to come down, swirling and dancing in the wind. Looking up from the blade, I saw my legs being slowly covered by the thick snow. Taking my hand barely touching my hair, I felt so many snowflakes in my hair. Looking down at my wrists and arms, snow covered that as well. I closed my eyes and leaned back; letting the snow assault me into the coldness. I felt my temperature start to fall, my heart beat fading. I was shivering, wanting to curl up and use my coat and scarf. But I didn't. I slowly raised my left arm and used the blade, cutting right along my veins. I closed my eyes feeling myself loose blood, dripping down my wrist, bleeding through the snow. I started to bring up all the good memories again.

Tears started to leak out of my closed eyes, but I didn't open them. Death was close, so close and soon I could be with my family again. I started to feel weak, dizzy from the loss of blood. I started to here the ground crunching. Was someone here? Or my imagination? I weakly opened my eyes just barely a crack and saw a figure. "WHAT THE FUCK?!?"he shouted, yep he saw me. I closed my eyes and heard a ripping sound. What was it? It wasn't from me, so I wasn't being raped, but who? I suddenly felt a thick cloth tied around my wrist to stop the flow of blood. I would've tried to do something, anything, but I was too weak from the blood loss that I could barely move my fingers a centimeter. I felt a warm leather jacket around me, the sweet scent of mint filling my nose. Suddenly two strong arms lifted me up and held me close. I felt him running through the forest trying to save me. Why didn't death come to take me yet? I didn't want to be saved! I heard a car door open and I felt the soft leather and minty scent wrap around me. The door slammed shut and the thumping of his feet pounding as he ran to the other side jumping into the car making me shift. I felt the car jerk forward before speeding off the highway. The heat was blasted on high and warmness envelop me. I felt so weak, it was so hard to even open my eyes, but I managed. Opening my eyes to look at the mystery guy I noticed that he looked at least two years older than me.

He suddenly pulled up when my eyes started to droop down. I was so tired I didn't fight against it. "No! Keep your eyes open! Just hang on!"he said frantically. Was I going to a hospital? Entering a warm place, the scent like home, this wasn't the hospital. But where was I?

"Elsee!"I heard him call.

"What is it? Oh dear!"she said, her voice very close by. "Take her to the couch. You must..."she trailed. What was she talking about? I felt whoever this was nod once and walked me over to the couch. The feeling of softness around me made me feel safe, and so cozy. Like that feeling when you wake up in the morning how you feel like sleeping the whole day. I feel weaker than before, as if I would die in a minute.

"Here, hurry she doesn't have much time left,"said the motherly voice. The mysterious guy lifted my head up and pressed a cup to my lips. I drank some before he took it away and replaced it with his lips. He kissed me and the feeling was...overwhelming. I never felt this ever before in my life! As if there was life in him. I felt blood pumping through my body, I didn't feel as cold, and I felt stronger. I started to kiss back, my hand slowly coming up into his hair lightly pulling him closer. I was so lost in the kiss that I forgot why I was even here. I pulled away quickly realizes what I had done. Shock coursed through me, the need to run away high in my legs, yet I stayed put breathing heavily.

"I-I-I-"I stuttered, blushing slight."I'm sorry,"managed.

"It's okay. "he said smiling slightly.

"What did you just give me?"I asked, I'm not going to turn into a mythical creature am I? I thought panicky.

"Relax, it's just tea my grandma gave you. The kiss..."he stopped short.

"What about it?" I asked cautiously.

"The kiss was to only help us both. I found you, and you lived."he said looking away awkwardly.

"What do you mean found me? As in found me to save me? I'm not supposed to live. I should've died."I said with an edge in my voice.

"The only reason I found you was that I felt something deep within the forest. It was you. Though we never met before, I know who you are. Sarah Winters."

"H-how d-do y-you k-know m-my n-name?!"I stuttered, what the hell was going on here?!

"Because of the kiss. Think about it, what's my name."he asked seriousness washing over his face. His cyan blue eyes intensified into a cobalt blue.

"Mitchell Summers,"I answered automatically, without even thinking. His favorite color is green, he has a little sister, Cyndi, his parents died in a crash,, he's been living with his grandma since he was seven. "Oh my God,"I said. "What does this mean?"I asked frantically, what the hell is going on here!?

"We're soul mates, founded by when one of us was dying."he said.

"S-soul mates?!" I stammered."What would 've happened if I died?"

"I'd die also,"he said.

"That's why you wanted to save me." This all kinda makes sense-in a weird way.

"How do you know this?"I asked him, cause never in my life have I ever head of something like this.

"My grandma is a wicca, she knows things."he said.

"Oh,"I stared at him, there was just something about him that looked so familiar, as if I've known him all my life.

"We were together in the past lives. Every time we found each other, you were always dying of something.And I always saved you."he whispered, but rang clearly in my ears.

"Do you know all of this from Elsee?"I asked, my eyes darting everywhere but couldn't find her.

"Yes and no.Elsee told me about my past life, and lately I've been having dreams. We look exactly the same as we did in the 1900's." My jaw dropped opened, anymore and it'll be on the floor.

And what happened to us every time?"I asked, please don't let us get murdered, please don't let us get murdered, please don't let us get murdered!!! I chatted mentally.

"We just live a happy life together. Why, what did you expect?"he said smirking, eying me.

"Nothing, just exactly that,"I said lying smoothly.

"Uhuh, suree,"he said in disbelief. I rolled my eyes and suddenly his mouth was back on mine. Oh how much my lips missed his without even realizing it. This is my Prince Charming. This is why I'm supposed to be living. Kissing him back, the feeling increased, my hands running through his silky hair, as his grabbed my redish blond hair. I tilted my head to the side so we could kiss better. He pulled away suddenly and I pouted.

"Come on, I need to show you something," he said taking my hand leading me towards a room. There was Elsee waiting. Mitchell closed the door and it was only us.

"Sit,"she smiled.I sat down and she took the cloth that was still around my wrist. It stung a little from the cut. She put a bandaid over it and soaked the cloth in water, blood staining the water. She took the cloth and dried it, pouring the bloody water in something that was steaming. Then threw something init created a BOOM!!!! I jumped up and she was gone, replaced by my parents and Max. My eyes teared up as I saw them, healthy, looking normal. I reached out to touch the but all there was was nothing. Nothing but air.

"Wha-?"I said.

"You can only see and talk to us, but cannot touch us,"said my mom. I nodded my head. Seeing them was one of the happiest things that has happened to me today. I stayed in there talking to them when Elsee said it was time to go. I thanked her so much I was pretty sure I annoyed the hell out of her!

A year has past now and I was so happy. Cyndi was so cute and nice, I really like her. There were no problems at all between all of us. I returned to school, (Sophomore-Junior(she's a Junior now)while Mitchell attended the Senior year(he's actually one year older than me!). Every time I saw him with a girl I'd always get jealous, but it was the same with him when I talked to a guy even if he needed a pencil when we were in the hall. At the end of the year, I felt sad. Mitchell was going off to college while I stayed here.

Walking through the halls, in a glum mood I felt two familiar arms wrap around me. I felt the tingle, the shock, the electricity between us instantly. I felt myself blush as he kissed my neck and turned my around to kiss me. I kissed him back automatically wrapping my arms around his neck, his arms instantly holding me tighter. Pulling away when I ran out of breath, I gave him a small smile. It didn't come out the way I wanted it to and he knew.

"What's wrong?"he asked. I sighed.

"Nothing,"I assured him.

"Tell me,"he said trailing his nose along my jaw sending shivers of pleasure through my body.

"I'm just sad that's all," I confessed. Mitchell frowned.

"Why?"

"Because you're going off to college, and-"I was cut off with his laughter. "It's not funny!"I said smacking his arm playfully turning around walking away, feeling a blush creeping towards my cheeks. Mitchell grabbed my wrist and spun me to face him. I looked childishly away from him, pouting.

"Aww, c'mon! Sarah, will you at least look at me?" I shook my head no, trying so hard not to look at him. "Really?"he breathed so close to my face. He started to kiss my cheek, going along my jaw kissing the right corner of my mouth. It was torture! I turned my head and kissed him, my rightside feeling all tingly and I just needed to kiss him. I pulled away from him putting my hands on his chest. He smiled and continued talking. "Didn't I tell you I'd wait?" Glaring at him I said no. Rolling his eyes he led me somewhere.

I was blindfolded and was walking through the forest, Mitchell guiding me(we were holding hands). "And...stop."He said turning me to face him. Taking off the blindfold we were at the place where he'd rescue me, when I almost successfully committed suicide. Mitchell getting down on one knee looking straight up at me. My eyes widened as I realized what he was doing. "Sarah Ann Winters. I have been in love with you since the dawn of time. I know everything about you, loving your flaws, your smile, everything. I want to be with you for the rest of my life, and the next life time after that, and the next. Will you marry me?"he asked pulling out a ring with silver band with amethyst in the middle and two sapphires next to it. "Yes,""I breathed taking in its beauty. "YES!!!!"I screamed louder as I got down on my knees hugging him. Suddenly I felt something cold touch my arm. Then another. Then another. Both of us pulling back looking up at the sky, snowflakes falling down. Smiling as Mitchell slid the ring into place. A perfect fit. I kissed him with so much passion, love, lust, EVERYTHING good. Pulling away, looking past him I saw my parents and Max looking so happy and proud. Tears sprung anew as I held onto Mitchell tighter. This was my Prince I've waited for. This is who I belong to.
